CLUBS MUSIC WOMENS WORK

What more? What less? In His judgment there is but one right way. But how good that this was in the right of life and business debt should be gone.

What are all these vagueness and indecision? All these voices in whose depths was buried?

What soul will think them? How safe is she who sees her son in the right? Who will not be won off by the bland tales of smooth and figures holding up doors?

To prove each silence rather than than great—Lord Brooks.

OIL TRUST IN FIGHT ON TARIFF

Dodging Behind Farmer to Cover Up Real Animus.

Personal Mention.
Mrs. W. D. Stevens and his daughter, Mrs. W. D. Stevens, the New York City actress, came from New York yesterday to attend the meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the Hotel Tulsa, where they were to attend the annual meeting of the Oklahoma State Board of Education.

"It is not the farmer who is fighting oil, but the oil trust, and in order to cover its own interests it is shielding behind the farmer."

When mid-continent crude oil was selling for $2.50 a barrel gasoline was selling for 30 cents a gallon here in the past. Now that mid-continent oil is selling at $1.50 a barrel gasoline is selling at 15 cents a gallon in the same locality.

"The oil trust makes prices throughout the country, our refined products. If the oil trust intended that the public should be the benefactors of reduced price of gasoline why did it not reduce the price gasoline relatively with the reduced price of crude oil?" According to the price now being paid for mid-continent crude gasoline should be selling for less than one-half of what the public is now paying."
